

Come be a part of the 1995 Marlboro Team Penske Indy Car season. We're starting this year in the top two positions, following a victory-filled season in '94, including Al Unser Jr.'s Indy 500 and PPG Championship wins. Al is back in the number one position with Emerson Fittipaldi, two-time Indy 500 winner, right beside him. As a race fan, you won't want to miss a single lap of what promises to be a hard-driving series.

We've enclosed your official Marlboro Team Penske calendar and a special offer to receive the 1995 Racing Guide and Poster. You'll have all the facts you need to track the team, from the roar as the Indy Cars take to the streets for the first running of the Marlboro Grand Prix of Miami to the twists and turns of Laguna Seca Raceway in Monterey, California.

Have a friend who smokes fill out a survey to get the Guide too, and you could both be qualified for future offers. There's more to come, so enjoy the calendar, send for the Guide, and follow us in '95.
